

DR. Anshu Kumar
Asst. Professor (English)
D.K. College, Dumraon (U.K.S.U)
E- Study material

Working with words! -

- 1) Psychology - Study of the human mind and behaviour
- 2) Psyche - one's inner or mental life or self image
- 3) Psychic - pertaining to mind
- 4) Psychopathy - mental or emotional disturbance
- 5) Psychosomatic - describing the interaction of mind and body
- 6) Psychoanalysis - psychological treatment based on Freudian techniques
- 7) Psychogenic - originating in the mind and emotions
- 8) Psychotherapy - general term for psychological treatment
- 9) Psychopath - person lacking in social conscience or inner censor

Psychological treatment aims at sharpening the intellect.

- 2) Psychic phenomena can be explained on rational or physical grounds.
- 3) Psychopathic personalities are not normal and healthy.
- 4) A psychosomatic symptom is caused by organic disease.
- 5) Every therapist uses psychoanalysis.
- 6) A psychogenic illness originates in the mind or emotion.
- 7) A psychotherapist must have a medical degree.
- 8) Psychoanalytically oriented therapy uses Freudian technique.
- 9) A psychopath is often a criminal.
- 10) A psychological treatment aims at sharpening of intellect.
- 11) Psychic phenomena can be explained on rational and physical grounds.
- 12) A psychopath is a criminal often.